

The Belmont Sofa

Understated and assured, the Belmont sofa embodies classic luxury with quiet confidence. Its gracefully curved back and elongated seat create a strong yet elegant silhouette, offering visual balance and a sense of composed sophistication. The refined proportions are complemented by gently tapered legs, lifting the design and giving it a timeless, tailored presence.

Designed for both comfort and longevity, Belmont's generous cushioning provides supportive relaxation without excess, making it equally suited to formal living spaces and everyday use. The smooth, continuous upholstery enhances its sculptural form while reflecting a meticulous attention to detail and craftsmanship.

Belmont is a sofa that doesn't demand attention, yet earns admiration — a calm, confident centrepiece that brings depth, comfort and enduring style to the home.

The Belmont Fringed Sofa

Elegant with a touch of theatre, the Belmont sofa with fringing reimagines classic luxury through a more expressive lens. Its graceful, curved silhouette remains quietly confident, while the addition of finely detailed fringing introduces movement, texture and a sense of handcrafted artistry.

The generous, continuous seat and supportive back provide the same assured comfort as the original Belmont, inviting relaxed, unhurried seating. The soft upholstery and flowing form create a cocooning feel, while the decorative fringe adds a refined flourish that elevates the piece and gives it a distinctive presence.

Belmont with fringing is a statement of individuality — a sofa that blends timeless design with subtle drama, bringing warmth, character and a sense of indulgence into the space.
