

The Ellington Sofa

Poised and polished, the Ellington sofa is the epitome of sophisticated, timeless design. Its clean-lined silhouette is softened by deep channel detailing and gently padded arms, creating a refined balance between structure and comfort. Subtle stud detailing adds a tailored edge, lending the piece an air of classic refinement without excess.

Designed for enduring comfort, Ellington offers a supportive yet inviting sit, with generous cushioning that holds its shape beautifully over time. The streamlined form allows it to sit effortlessly within both contemporary and traditional interiors, making it a versatile centrepiece for elegant living spaces.

Ellington is a sofa that speaks quietly but confidently — a smooth, assured design that brings lasting style, comfort and understated luxury into the home.
